SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCING
NEWS SHEET No. 13

January 1949

Summer Holidays for Folk Dancers.

Means are being investigated by one of our members, Dennis Compton, whereby a party from the Society can spend a holiday in "Bad Aussee" Austria, next summer. The idea is that this party shall enjoy the beautiful district and definite arrangements can be made to study local Folk Dancing. At the same time they might want to demonstrate some of our dances to the local people.

A small residential hotel has been offered for the party. The cost of full board at this hotel amounts to just less than £1 per day. Further particulars may be obtained from Dennis Compton who visited this area last summer.

Classes

A new series of advanced classes will be held every Friday from January 14th at Carlyle School. The number of people asked to these classes will not now be restricted by the size of the hall but by the ability of the pupils to benefit from the teaching of more difficult dances. It is hoped that later, instructors who are expert in their own national dances, will be obtained to introduce new dances to the Society via the advanced class.

Will those members who are keen to come to these advanced classes, please tick their names off if they are on a list compiled by Mary Butterworth and displayed at the Wednesday dance at Carlyle School.

Demonstrations

A team visited Eastbourne on December 4th to dance for young delegates at a conference organised by the Council for Education in World Citizenship. Krakowiak, Hopak, Swedish Schottische, Landler, Maake Toone, Meitschi Putz Di and Esthonian Spinning Wheel were among the dances shown. A Highland Sword Dance was also demonstrated.

On December 18th, a team danced for a party organised by Jack McConnochie at Sudbury.

A team will demonstrate at the Central Hall, Westminster, on December 29th.

Week-End News

There are still vacancies for the week-end visit to Godalming Guest House on February 19th. A large party will be going so there will be opportunity to dance in the Ballroom during the evenings.

The Treasurer, Bert Price, will need everyone's contribution by the last week of January.
